West Street

Warwick, CV34 6AH

Price guide €490,000

Nestled on the charming West Street in Warwick, these delightful Grade II listed cottages presents a unique opportunity for both homeowners and investors alike. With two distinct properties under one roof, this residence offers the flexibility to create a spacious family home or to maintain a rental unit, subject to the necessary planning permissions.

The larger property features two reception rooms, perfect for entertaining guests or enjoying quiet evenings at home and a modern fitted kitchen to the ground floor. Upstairs there are two bedrooms and a bathroom. The access to the larger bedroom is somewhat quirky but adds to the charm of this town centre property.

The smaller property has a kitchen dining room, a living room and a shower room to the ground floor. Upstairs there is a galleried bedroom with eaves storage. The second room with storage cupboard would make an ideal walk in wardrobe, home office or nursery.

One of the standout features of this property is the large, secure garden, which offers a peaceful retreat for outdoor activities, gardening, or simply enjoying the fresh air. Additionally, the property includes a garage and a designated parking space, ensuring that you have ample room for vehicles and storage.

Situated in the historic town of Warwick, this cottage is surrounded by a wealth of local amenities, including shops, schools, and recreational facilities. The rich history and vibrant community make it a desirable location for families and professionals alike.

In summary, these Grade II listed cottages on West Street are a rare find, offering the potential for dual living arrangements or a single expansive home. With its charming features, secure garden, and convenient parking, this property is not to be missed.
