

Les Hirondelles, Le Petit Val,
€670,000

A stunning detached bungalow set in its own grounds. The property has amazing sea views out across Platte Saline Bay and the island of Burhou. approached at the end of a long a private road the property is hidden away and totally private. The home has a wonderful feeling of space throughout the whole property with large rooms, there is a large open plan kitchen and dining room, with a double oven ringmaster cooker and American fridge freezer. The lounge is also spacious with a sea view, and patio doors leading out toe rear terrace.

There are four double bedrooms and a house bathroom, the master bedroom has an en suite bathroom, externally there is a large driveway with parking for 6 cars, and a car port, a garden to the North, and to the East, and a terrace and raised garden to the South, with a higher level sun deck with amazing sea views out to Platte aline and the island of Burhou, there is also a greenhouse, and a detached annex. This property must be seen to fully appreciated.

