Le Petit Jardin

La Petit Jardin is a beautiful granite fronted town house nestled on the town outskirts comprising of 4 bedrooms 2 bathrooms, two lounges, a dining room, a superb bespoke vaulted kitchen, and a garage/workshop.

The home benefits from a wonderful established, and secluded garden which is South West facing so sun all day and sunsets in the evening.

The garden is cleverly divided into a recreational area with lawns and an El Fresco BBQ deck, To the rear of the land is a superb vegetable garden with raised beds supported by large timber sleepers.

Then finally a beautiful traditional timber green house with it's own grape vine, so your own petite vineyard!

An amazing town house, totally renovated by an interior designer with great attention to detail the property has been made into a very desirable home.

Interior

The interior of the home has to be appreciated, the attention to detail is first class down to the 1940's light switches to the colour co-ordination of the rooms, this is someone who understands interior design, colour, texture, mood.

As soon as you enter the home you are immediately surrounded by a wonderful homely feeling, lightness, and superb co-ordination of materials, the lounge has a wood burning stove.

A separate dining room leads into an amazing fully fitted kitchen with a vaulted ceiling, with natural sky lights, and even a Pizza oven!

The first floor houses another casual lounge, two bedrooms, one is the master, and a house bathroom.

Up again to the top floor to two further beautiful double bedrooms and a shower room.

On the ground floor is a large garage/workshop.
